

LETTER OF INTENTIONS

Aiming to bring contemporary art and culture closer to citizens and foster involvement of young people into cultural activities through intercultural exchanges and supporting mobility, we, the undersigned representatives of partner institutions/organizations at the project "CoolTURE" which is supported by the Europe for Citizens program of the European Union, are aware that:

- Culture and art are significant element of common European identity;
- Supporting contemporary art and culture will contribute to developing and strengthening future European Cultural Heritage;
- Cultural and art activities are important as they transfer European values to citizens and addressing societal challenges in a critical way;
- Culture helps bridging divisions within and between societies, and creates feeling of common space and communities;
- Local institutions are closest level to citizens, and as such responsible for bridging a gap between culture and citizens, and especially young people;
- Intercultural exchanges and mobility of young people interested in culture and art contributes to cultural diversity and sustainability.

Therefore, we commit to establishing of a consortium whose work will continue after the life of project, working on:

- Organizing joint projects and activities that will support exchanges of young people in culture and art;
- Support of mobility and exchange of young artists between cities represented in the consortium;
- Popularizing contemporary culture and art among young people and other citizens;
- Creation of innovative practices that will attract young people into culture and art, strengthening its relation and ensuring cultural sustainability;
- Strengthening development of European Cultural Heritage for some future generations by raising awareness of its importance and organizing related activities.
